

GIRLS FOR WAR WORK FACE ROOMING PROBLEM

No young and inexperienced girls should come to Washington for war work with the Government without securing in advance rooms and board and a definite position.

This is the advice sent out to chairman of the various State councils of defense by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, chairman of the woman's committee of the Council of National Defense.

The cost of living is so high in the Capital and boarding accommodations so limited that girls and women alone in Washington face a dilemma, according to Dr. Shaw.

Women and girls can perform office work for the Government for an indefinite time yet, says Dr. Shaw, but they should be warned before coming to Washington that boarding accommodations are scarce and the cost of living unusually high. Dr. Shaw asks State chairmen to notify the woman's committee here of any women workers who intend to come to Washington during the present emergency.

Liberty Bonds on Partial Payment for Patriotic People

Every red-blooded American should respond to the call of the Government and buy a second Liberty Loan bond.

Your dollars invested in these bonds can fight shoulder to shoulder with the brave American youth in far battlefields.

An Easy Payment Plan

Any one desiring to buy a $50 or $100 bond can do so by paying as little as $5 or $10 a month. All that you have to do is to go to any bank in Washington, say that you want to buy a bond, make your first payment at the time, and agree to continue payments for nine months.

BOY SCOUTS START CONTEST TO WIN PRESIDENT'S FLAG

Two thousand "Liberty bond Boy Scouts" are today off on their second Liberty loan campaign, and each of the eighty-one troops is determined to win the flag that President Wilson will give to the troop that does the best work.

While their band plays, Boy Scouts will gather this afternoon at 4 o'clock on the south steps of the Treasury to see war service medals presented to scouts that sold the most bonds during the first campaign. The honor badges will be presented by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Crosby. Every scout that sells thirty bonds or more in this campaign will be given a similar badge.

But the President's flag is the thing the young bond boosters are after. Every house in Washington will be visited tomorrow by a Boy Scout armed with application blanks and a store of Liberty bond enthusiasm.

Scouts Own Bonds.
These youngsters practice what they preach. Many of them already own bonds bought with money they earned themselves, and others are saving with the sole ambition of wearing a Liberty bond button.

"I made all my money doing odd jobs around town," said A. Leftwich Sinclair, Jr., the thirteen-year-old son of the president of the Chamber of Commerce. "I shoveled snow in the winter, worked at the markets on Saturdays and after school, and did without many things that I wanted to buy my $50 Liberty bond. I am going to buy another one before long. It makes you feel good to own a bond, and sport a button around just as big as any of the men."

Works For Bond.
Robert Lamb, twelve years old, the son of Dr. R. S. Lamb, says he made most of the money for his $50 bond working for the public comfort committee at the last inauguration. He also ran errands on his wheel, and did all kinds of odd jobs. "I bought my bond at the National Savings and Trust Company. That is where I keep my bank account, you know," said Robert.

Washington Boy Scouts raised $77, 100 for the first Liberty loan, and they say they are going to make that figure look like small change this time.

TIMES' STORY GETS MAX BACK TO HIS MISTRESS

Through the aid of The Times and a young woman from Frederick, Md., "Max" the angora kitten and pet of 1827 P street northwest, missing since Saturday has been returned to his mistress and everybody interested is happy today.

Tuesday morning the young woman was hurrying down Sixteenth street. "Max" meowed and attracted her attention. That was enough because "Max" is "some kitty." She

How Old Are You By Your Hair?

You may be thirty in years, but if you are bald-headed, gray, or your hair is dry, brittle, scraggly and ugly-looking, people will surely take you to be many years older. There is nothing like good-looking hair to help men and women to business and social success.

Dandruff is the root of most hair troubles. It clogs the scalp pores, robbing the hair roots of the stimulation nature intended, then the hair becomes faded, dry, brittle, scraggly looking, and finally falls out—never to grow again unless the hair root is immediately restored to a healthy condition. At the first sign of dandruff or any hair trouble use Parisian sage. It's a scientific preparation that supplies all hair needs—there is nothing better. It immediately banishes every trace of dandruff and supplies the proper nourishment to the starved roots, stimulating them to grow new hair, thick and lustrous. A scalp massage with Parisian sage is a pure delight, easy to use, not sticky or greasy and delicately perfumed—an amber liquid free from dangerous lead or sulphur—perfectly harmless and guaranteed not to color or streak the hair. It's preferred by discriminating women because it makes the hair soft, silky, wavy, easy to arrange, and appears heavier than it really is. A large bottle is not expensive at any drug store or toilet counter, but be sure to get Parisian sage (Giroux's) for this is always sold with money-back guarantee. O'Donnell's Drug Store will supply you.—Adv.

For many months past we have utilized this space of 680 agate lines in nearly 400 newspapers of the United States to give reasons why thoughtful people should buy and read The Literary Digest. This week we are devoting this space to a purpose infinitely more important—the sale of the Government Liberty Loan Bonds.

Fathers and Mothers IF YOU BELIEVE THAT YOUR SON—YOUR NEIGHBOR'S SON—THE MILLION FIGHTING SONS OF AMERICA—SHOULD HAVE AN EVEN CHANCE FOR LIFE IN THIS WORLD- WAR, AND WOULD BE SURE THAT HE GETS IT— Buy a Liberty Bond NOW

The wars of today are won by the combatants with the greatest resources. Food, ammunition, clothing, supplies of every sort, count as much as men, and often more. Napoleon declared that an army fights upon its stomach. All these necessities come down, in the last analysis, to money, and more money—yours and that of every other real American—the Government must have and have at once.

We are in a life and death struggle between autocracy and democracy and democracy can not win without our help. Understand this clearly. Let it sink into you, become a part of you, and then live it every hour of every day.

Hundreds of thousands of our best and bravest, clean-cut, splendid young Americans, are being trained for immediate service in the trenches. Every dollar we withhold strikes directly at the lives of these boys who are doing their bit for us. They are giving their all to the cause. If we can not fight beside them we owe it to them and to ourselves to back them with our last dollar. It can mean no more than a temporary pinch to us. Think for one moment what it means to them.

The fight to which they go is our fight. Every one of them who falls is a sacrifice for US. He dies far away from home that WE may keep our home, live the life we have chosen, pursue the paths of peace in security and shelter.

These young fellows who are about to risk everything that makes existence worth while in our defense are our own flesh and blood. Every one of them is YOUR son, YOUR brother, YOUR nearest and dearest. Let every one of us get this fixed firmly in his mind (for it is literally true in a deeper sense than ever before in the world's history), and he can not choose but give, just as he would strip himself of his last penny if his wife were dying or his child had to be operated upon to save its life.

You personally and the nation at large have never been in such dire, such imminent peril as that which threatens you at this moment. This is no figure of speech, indeed there are no words in the language, that can adequately bring your danger home to you. Think of ruined Belgium, devastated Poland, and remember that every Liberty Bond you buy is a barrier between your loved ones and such horrors as these.

It is the safest investment on earth. Nowhere can earnings, savings, trust funds, or income investments be placed so securely—and you can sell your Liberty Bonds at any time you need the money. Think of getting FOUR PER CENT INTEREST on such an investment! And remember that the day the war ends, these bonds will command a large premium—4% Government bonds before we entered the war were selling at $116 on the stock exchange. There never was such a profitable bargain as the Liberty Bond, and money never did such glorious service.
